Witness Authentic Indian Tribal Rites

Ride Careening Runaway Mine Cars

ENTIRELY NE

EARLY AMERICAN INDIAN VILLAGE. "Wo-o hā yāh," chants a grim-faced warrior amid throbbing tom-toms and the chilling whoops and shrieks of frenzied tribal dancers whirling about in ceremonial regalia. Actual rites such as this are performed several times daily by Indians in their realistic village in Frontier Town. Visitors in the front row bleachers may suddenly find themselves a part of the ceremony!

CHICKEN PLANTATION. This quaint new Frontier Town restaurant is a welcome haven for hungry connoisseurs of succulent chicken and other fine foods. Cedar Point offers many convenient places for either a quick snack or a complete meal.

THE GAZEBO BANDSTAND. Now, the charm of a leisurely stroll through gay Frontier Town is enhanced by lively band music from the new Gazebo.

Ride The C. P. & L. E. Railroad Or The Frontier Lift

CEDAR CREEK GOLD RUSH. A gasp is all you'll be able to muster when your runaway mine car plunges at blurring speeds through tight, curly-cue turns and wicked curves as tricky and sharp as a devil's elbow. You'll be left with a lasting sensation of wonderment and exhilaration. Warm up on the Blue Streak roller coaster before you try this one!

THE HORSELESS CARRIAGE. At Frontier Town, yesterday's marvel is today's novelty. Now you can take the wheel of the sputtering tin lizzie that thrilled Grandpa and frightened many a horse clean out of his wits.

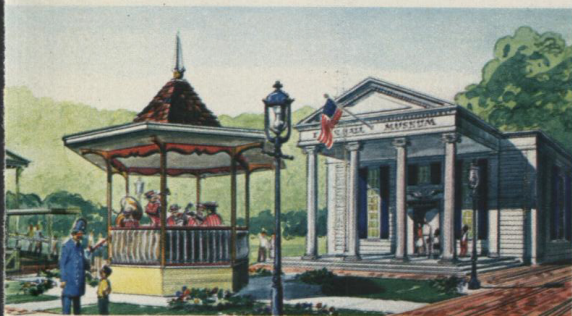

SEE TELEVISION'S FAMOUS GOLDDIGGERS. Twelve of America's most popular, beautiful and talented entertainers appear in person on the new Hippodrome Stage May 28 thru June 24. The Golddiggers are followed by the exciting Tahitian Revue, June 25 thru August 5. Three shows on weekdays, 4 shows daily on weekends.

W FOR 1969

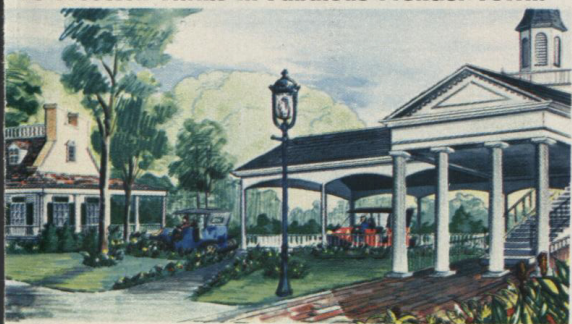

SPECTACULAR CEDAR POINT SUMMER THEATER.

America's most talented and eager young college entertainers were selected from special auditions throughout ten states to perform in Cedar Point's gala summer stage productions. All shows are written, produced and directed by Charles R. Meeker, Jr., producer of the Miss Teenage America TV pageant, and longtime Producing Director of the famous Dallas summer theater. Shows are free to Funway and Frontier Town visitors. No tickets are collected. Just walk right in.

Several performances of a unique Family-Fun Musical Show are presented daily in the newly-remodeled Ballroom Theater on the Funway, while Frontier Town's authentic Golden Palace Theater features daily entertainment in the spirit of the Old West. Nationally known entertainers will appear at the Funway's new Hippodrome Stage. And a roving, 12-piece Hobo Band and zany Keystone Kops supply music and laughter everywhere.

To Western Thrills In Fabulous Frontier Town.

LEGENDARY PATENT MEDICINE SHOW. A traveling medicine show right out of the Old West has drifted into Frontier Town brimful of mirth and magic. Here, you'll get a good dose of belly-laugh tonic.

SEALAND AQUARIUM EXPANDED. The all-new Sealand aquarium contains hundreds of awesomely beautiful and deadly underwater creatures from all over the world. It's a different kind of thrill. Give Sealand prime time on your next visit to Cedar Point.

CRAFT FESTIVAL. June 14-29. Featured at Frontier Town's picturesque new Town Hall will be craftsmen from West Virginia, Ohio-Designer-Craftsmen, Ohio Arts and Craft Guild, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C. and hand glass blowing by veteran technicians of Libbey Glass Co. and Owens-Illinois Glass Co., Toledo. Free to Frontier Town visitors.
